听力部分录音稿

(Text 1)

W: I thought you were from Canada, but I see you have a US passport.

M: I was born in Canada, but I moved to the US when I was thirteen. And now I'm in China.

(Text 2)

W: I need to inform the post office of my change in address. I don't want my letters to be late again.

M: Yes, good idea.

(Text 3)

W: Good morning. Can I take your order for breakfast?

M: Yes, thank you. I'll start with some grape juice...no...some hot coffee, followed by corn bread.

(Text 4)

W: Hi, Colin. Where are you?

M: I'm on the beach but it's really cloudy here today.

W: Well, perhaps it will be sunny later.

(Text 5)

M: So what do you want to do today? Play tennis?

W: Oh, no. I don't think so.

M: How about swimming? It's hot today.

W: But look at our house. I have to clean the house.

(Text 6)

W: Could you give me some advice about the design of the new advertisement?

M: I'd be happy to, but I really have to get this report done. Maybe Alan has some free time.

W: That's right! And he has some background in advertising.

M: I just saw him come back from his lunch break. Now it would be a good time to catch him.

W: Great!

(Text 7)

M: Morning, Mary, so ... are you going to go running to get ready for the sports day tomorrow? I mean, I know you can't go outside now in the rain, but have you checked the weather to see if it will clear up later?

W: No, I've already gone running a lot, but now I'm worried that the sports day might be cancelled! They said on the radio that the rain will stop later, but it'll be followed by strong winds!

M: Oh, let me check online now. Oh, don't worry! The wind will disappear tonight, according to the latest online forecast, so it will be fine tomorrow, and those forecasts are always right.

W: Oh, good!

(Text 8)

W: Mark, could you show me around the school?

M: Sure. Follow me, please.

W: What's that red building over there? The building to the right of white building.

M: That's the school library. The white building is the gym, my favorite place in the school.

W: What's the brown building on the left of the library?

M: It's our new teaching building. I usually take classes there.

W: Is there a swimming pool in your school?

M: Yes. But it's only open in the afternoon every Saturday and Sunday.

W: Do you like swimming there?

M: Yes. I usually go swimming there every Saturday afternoon with some of my friends. It not only helps me relax after a week of study but also helps me stay fit. Now let's go over here. I'll show you the science building.

W: OK.

(Text 9)

W: Tom, can you get the vegetables out of the fridge, please?

M: Lettuce and carrots?

W: We need carrots but not lettuce. And can you see the peppers?

M: Yes.

W: Two of those, as well. We'll cut them into small pieces.

M: Fine. Shall I turn the cooker on?

W: Yes, nice and hot, please.

M: 190 degrees?

W: Put it at 220 for now, and then we can change it to 200 later.

M: OK. The vegetables are ready.

W: Good. We can roast them together with the fish.

M: How long will it take?

W: We'll cook it hot for 15 minutes, and then 25 minutes at a lower temperature, so in 40 minutes it'll be ready.

M: Great. I'm going to watch TV for a few minutes.

W: Actually, can you do this little bit of washing-up? I'm going to make a dessert

M: OK.

(Text 10)

Good morning, boys and girls. I have three new books for this month to share with you in our class today.

The first is the Long Night by David Reilly. The story is about a nurse called Maha in northern Australia. She works in a small hospital. One day, a baby is so ill that Maha has to drive all night to get her to the nearest big city. They have lots of problems getting there.

The second is Hard Work by Joanna Jones. It's about Sombat, who works with his father, a worker, in Thailand. They work long, hard hours making tables and chairs, but they do not have any money. Then one day a man buys the most tables in the shop...

The third book is Hospital or Cinema by Marcie Jacome, who is a student. This story is about a young Brazilian woman called Tina. Her dream is to become a doctor. She goes to London to study medicine but one day she meets a man who asks her to go to the USA with him to become a film star... What will Tina do?

You can choose one of the books, and then write an essay after reading it.

书面表达

Dear Lucy,

I'm Li Hua. I'm writing to tell you something about Chinese's using the colour red.

We do like red, for red stands for happiness and good fortune in our culture. Therefore, you can see people wear red clothes and hang red lanterns during the Spring Festival. And the senior citizens even give their grandchildren some lucky money in red envelopes. Besides, young couples are also dressed in red on their weddings. However, be sure to avoid wearing red clothes during some sad events, such as attending funerals and visiting some patients. If you do so, it is really rude. I sincerely hope my explanations will be of great use for you.

Best wishes!

Yours,

Li Hua
